Quinn Emanuel London Accepting Applications for International Arbitration Internship Programme

Quinn Emanuel invites applications for an internship with the firm's International Arbitration team in London. Interns will be involved in a varied workload under the supervision of Quinn Emanuel partners and associates. The work will include assistance with current matters; writing papers and journal articles; and similar projects. Information about Quinn Emanuel's International Arbitration practice is available here.

Duration: 3 months (flexible)

Start Date: Flexible

Qualifications: Preferred applicants will have a demonstrated academic grounding in International Arbitration, at least one university degree in law, and a passion to develop a career in the field. Applicants need not be admitted to practice. Fluency in spoken and written English is essential.

Benefits: Interns will receive a competitive salary.

Visas / Permits: Where applicable, internships will be conditional on successful applicants obtaining an appropriate visa/work permit.

Application: To apply for an internship at Quinn Emanuel, please send your application to the following email address: londonrecruitment@quinnemanuel.com

Please submit the following items with your application:

- Cover letter stating your reasons for applying;
- Curriculum vitae (including the names of two referees);
- Academic transcript(s);
- Confirmation that you will be available to intern during the agreed upon period; and
- If you do not have a passport issued by the UK or any other country in the European Economic Area (EEA), or Switzerland, confirmation that you have (or can obtain) the necessary visa that would authorise you to live and work in the UK, together with details of that visa. Visa information for non-EEA and non-Swiss nationals and residency information for EEA and Swiss nationals can be found on the UK Home Office website.
